

Alaska Native Book Fair!

ANTHC Admin Building 4000 Ambassador Dr.

A collage of various Alaska Native literature book covers. The books are overlapping and displayed on a wooden surface. Visible titles include: 'A Mother's Tears for a Missing Son: A Challenging Spiritual Experience' (featuring a person in a winter hat), 'Fishcamp' (with a stylized fish logo), 'Bird Girl and the Man who Followed the Sun' (yellow cover), 'The Winter Walk: A Century-Old Survival Story from the Arctic' (featuring a person in a snowy landscape), 'Wisdom Keeper: A Man's Journey to Honor the People' (with a portrait of a man), 'Two Old Women: 20th Anniversary Edition' (purple cover with geometric patterns), 'When Raven' (featuring a raven's head), and 'This Is Yakutat' (featuring a forest scene). Other partially visible titles include 'Tuwounangu Yis, Healing Our Spirit' and 'Will The Time Ever Come?'.

Bring the young ones!

Watch episodes of Molly of Denali writing and enjoying books
Make and draw your own book with Ronald McDonald House staff
Buy autographed copies of children's books from the authors!

Sponsored by: Alaska Native Media Group, Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium,
Atwood Foundation, Alaska Pacific University, Alaska Public Media, Best Beginnings
AlaskaNativeMedia.org